

Murphy Sullivan, Director of Development

Murphy is a Fulbright College Honors Scholar who earned a B.A. in political science from the University of Arkansas and an M.A. in public administration from Saint Louis University. Murphy has an impressive background in development, public relations, and marketing. Her previous local and national work experience focused on education, workforce and economic development, public safety, healthcare and other quality of life issues, transportation, affordable housing, and community development. Murphy did some work with Reading Connections last year, most notably leading our H.O.R.S.E. fundraising event last spring. Murphy is a graduate of Leadership Greensboro and serves on the board of directors for Dance Project and committees for the Guilford County Family Justice Center and Guilford Nonprofit Consortium. She is the proud mother of two daughters.
